I. POLICY

It is the policy of the Texas Forensic Nurse Examiners (TXFNE) Center Forensic Center of Excellence to demonstrate transparency by explaining how the organization uses the personal data collected from our website.

II. Date Collected

TXFNE collects the following data from our website:

- Personal identification information (Name, email address, phone number, etc.)

III. How Data is Collected

The website user provides TXFNE with most of the data we collect. We collect data when you:

- Register online or place an order for any of our products or services;
- Voluntarily complete a customer survey or provide feedback on any of our message boards or via email;
- Use or view our website via your browsers's cookies.

The Information We Collect:

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on the TXFNE Forensic Center of Excellence online or offline. On some pages, you can make requests and register to receive materials. The types of personal information collected at these pages are:

- Name;
- Address;
- Email address;
- Phone number; and,
- Credit/Debit Card Information, etc.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website and to share with advertisers. For example, we may tell an advertiser that "X" number of individuals visited a certain area on our website, or that "Y number" of men and "Z" number of women filled out our registration form, but we do not disclose anything that could be used to identify those individuals.

IV. How Data is Used

TXFNE collects data so we can process orders and manage accounts, so that we can email you about our services and fundraising opportunities and newsletters. When TXFNE processes an order, we may send your data to, and also use the resulting information from, credit reference agencies to prevent fraudulent purchases.

Every three years.
